You Don’t Say!

Narrative writing, using narrative techniques (W.4.3b; W.4.4; W.5.3b; W.5.4)

Using the narrative you have planned, jot descriptive details, actions, and dialogue about how the characters act about and react to the problem.

- Descriptive Details

  - Discovering and Dealing With the Problem
  - Solving the Problem

- Things the Characters Might Do

- Things the Characters Might Say

Hint: Write dialogue so it sounds like people do when they actually talk. Don’t make their speech sound too formal and don’t make it so long your reader loses interest.

Note to the teacher: Have each student use a copy of this page after planning a narrative to develop his essay with descriptive details and dialogue.
